

Contractor Disclosure, Authorization & Consent for the Procurement of Consumer Reports

Section 1: Disclosure

Vista Rehab Services may request background information about you from a consumer reporting agency in connection with your contractor application and for contracting purposes. The report ordered is defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) as a Consumer Report, and all inquiries are limited to information that affects contractor performance and the Company. It is conducted in accordance with applicable federal and state laws including the FCRA. The screening will be conducted by an outside agency, Applicant Safe.

A consumer report is a compilation of information that might affect your contract. The scope of the report may include information concerning your driving record, civil and criminal court records, credit, education, credentials, identity, past addresses, social security number, previous companies and personal references.

Should a company rely upon a consumer report for an adverse action, the FCRA mandates you be provided with a copy of the consumer report in a summary of your rights. An adverse action is defined as "a denial of an application for contracting or any other decision for contracting purposes that adversely affects any current or prospective contractor."
